Instructions for Use of the Certificate of Exemption for Contractors (Form S-3C)

(For use only in completion of qualified projects for exempt organizations)

All tangible personal property purchased by a contractor is taxable as the contractor is considered to be the end-user with the finished product normally being real property, which is not subject to Vermont Sales and Use Tax. However, there are certain exemptions allowed for contractors purchasing materials:

- When the contractor is working with a qualifying exempt organization
- When the contractor is working on a specific qualifying exempt project

Tangible personal property exempted from tax must be incorporated into the real estate, or the supplies must be used or consumed on the job. If the contractor buys materials or supplies exempt from tax but uses them later in a taxable project, the contractor must pay use tax on those materials and supplies. Purchases of equipment and tools used by the contractor are subject to tax.

Qualifying Organizations & Projects

A qualifying organization contracts to construct, reconstruct, alter, remodel, or repair any building structure or public works project owned by the Federal government, State of Vermont (and its agencies and subdivisions), or a 501(c)(3) as designated by the Internal Revenue Service and registered with the Vermont Department of Taxes. Please note that many nonprofit organizations, such as civic, social, and fraternal organizations, are not 501(c)(3)s and not all 501(c)(3)s projects qualify for exemption. To qualify, the project must be used exclusively for public purposes, and the project contract must be granted by an exempt organization. Turnkey projects are not exempt, even if the ultimate owner may be an exempt organization.

Qualifying Manufacturing Facility

Under 32 V.S.A. § 9741(39), Sales of building materials within any three consecutive years in excess of $1,000,000.00 in purchase value used in the construction, renovation, or expansion of facilities which are used exclusively, except for isolated or occasional uses, for the manufacture of tangible personal property for sale.

Acceptance in “Good Faith”

A seller who accepts an exemption certificate in “good faith” is relieved of liability for collection or payment of the Vermont Sales and Use Tax otherwise due on tangible personal property covered by the certificate. Good faith depends upon a consideration of all the conditions surrounding the transaction. To receive an exemption in good faith, a seller is presumed to be familiar with the law and the regulations pertinent to the business in which the seller deals. In order for good faith to be established, all of the following conditions must be met:

- a. The buyer must present the certificate prior to or at the time of the purchase of the property.
- b. The certificate must contain no statement or entry which the seller knows, or has reason to know, is false or misleading.
- c. The certificate is on an exemption form issued by the Vermont Department of Taxes or a form with substantially identical language.
- d. The certificate must be dated and complete and in accordance with published instructions.
- e. The Vermont Sales and Use Tax account number is provided on the certificate where applicable
- f. The property to be purchased is of a type ordinarily used by the buyer for the purpose described on the certificate.

Improper Certificate/Lack of Certificate

Sales of tangible personal property subject to tax which are not supported by properly executed exemption certificates are taxable retail sales. The burden of proof that the tax was not required to be collected is upon the seller.

Retention of Certificates by the Seller

Sellers must retain exemption certificates for at least three years from the date of the last sale covered by the certificate to document why tax was not collected from the buyer.

Multiple Purchase Exemption Certificates

If the buyer presents a “Multiple Purchase” exemption certificate to the seller, it may be used only when purchasing tangible personal property for use on the qualified exempt project as noted on this exemption certificate. For each purchase covered by the exemption certificate, the sales slip or invoice must show the buyer’s name and address sufficient to link the purchase to the exemption certificate on file.

Other types of exemption certificates that may be applicable are available on our website at: www.tax.vermont.gov. For questions regarding how these exemption certificates may be properly applied, please contact the Vermont Department of Taxes at (802) 828-2551.
